

FAIRFAX COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

ACTIVITY REPORT

JULY 23, 2010

ACTIVITIES REPORTED THROUGH JULY 21, 2010

PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE -- 703-246-2253

There are three sections in this report: Section I: MAJOR INCIDENTS; Section II: PROPERTY CRIMES; and, Section III: ANIMAL RELATED INCIDENTS. Sections are appropriately identified. Within the sections, incidents are organized by station, then by type of offense. They are listed alphabetically by street address.

Addresses shown indicate blocks and not specific locations. Thus an entry showing Chain Bridge Road 4100 would mean the 4100 block of Chain Bridge Road, not the address 4100 Chain Bridge Road.

An asterisk (*) before an item indicates that a news release was distributed on that offense.

Domestic violence-related charges: 39

Illegal drug-related charges: 62

DWI-related charges: 64

**These numbers are based on preliminary data which undergoes frequent modification and may not reconcile with year-end totals.*

Section II: MAJOR INCIDENTS

COUNTYWIDE

*SEXUAL BATTERY: Fairfax County Crime Solvers is asking for the public's assistance in locating Ravi K. Veluri, M.D. Veluri currently has an outstanding warrant for sexual battery. The charge stems from an allegation made by a female patient on Thursday, July 15. The 24-year-old woman was seen by Veluri at the Family Care Medical Center, located at 4810 Beauregard Street in Alexandria, around noon. Veluri reportedly touched the victim inappropriately and made inappropriate comments. The victim left the office and reported the incident to police. Further investigation led detectives to obtain the warrant against Ravi K. Veluri, 58, of 8305 Upper Spring Lane in Annandale. He is 5 feet 8 inches tall and weighs about 175 pounds. He has brown eyes and dark-colored hair with gray mixed in. He is of Indian descent.

If anyone else has been a patient of Veluri and believes they have been victimized, they are asked to contact police or Crime Solvers. The practice is also known as "Urgent Care" or in Spanish as "Clínica Español." Anyone with information on the whereabouts of Veluri is asked to contact Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS(8477), e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES(274637). A $100 to $1,000 cash reward will be paid for information that leads to an arrest. As always, callers never have to give their names or appear in court. Find us on Facebook.

*BINGE DRINKING FORUM: As parents ready their children for college, loading bags with mini-fridges, laptops and school supplies, police encourage them to arm their teens with another vital necessity: information on the rising phenomena of dangerous campus binge drinking. Police are co-hosting a free forum on the topic on Wednesday, July 28 at 7 p.m. at the Annandale Campus of Northern Virginia Community College, Ernst Cultural Center, 8333 Little River Turnpike, Annandale. The event includes a screening of the award-winning documentary "HAZE", followed by a panel of local experts who frankly and clearly express the local problems associated with underage binge drinking in Fairfax County. The topic is particularly relevant to college-bound students but anyone who has an interest in this issue is strongly encouraged to attend.

The forum is being held in response to overwhelming demand from residents who were unable to attend the first standing-room-only presentation held on May 26. Nearly 250 parents and students were on hand that evening to take a close look at the crisis of binge drinking and hazing on college campuses, both in Virginia and across the country. A few of the many positive responses from attendees include:

“This program should be extended across Virginia, in every community.”

“HAZE should be required viewing for all high school students.”

“Thank you for this opportunity to address this issue WITH my 17-year-old son.”

The team of experts slated to be on the panel includes; Fairfax County Commonwealth Attorney Raymond Morrogh, Inova Fairfax Hospital trauma surgeon Dr. William Hauda, West Springfield Police District Commander Captain Bruce Ferguson, Virginia Tech student Ryan Smith, and Jeff Levy, father of a student who died as a result of drinking at a college party. Colonel David M. Rohrer, Chief of Police and Diane Eckert, an alcohol prevention specialist will offer welcoming remarks. The police department is co-hosting this program with the Countywide Initiative to Reduce Underage Drinking (CIRUD) and the Northern Virginia Community College. It is partially funded by a Drug Free Communities federal grant. Attendees may park in the visitor's section of the parking garage; coupons for free parking will be distributed at the event. Call 703-246-3271 for more information.

*GRAND LARCENY/ARREST: Police are trying to re-connect dozens of family heirlooms to their rightful owners, including a gold ring inscribed with the date July 19, 1866, before all the items are sent off to the Unclaimed Property Division of the State Treasury in Richmond.

“There's no doubt that many of these items may be invaluable for sentimental reasons, in addition to the monetary value,” said 2nd Lieutenant Jeff Gossett, supervisor of the Property and Evidence Section. In addition to the Civil War-era gold ring, there are 31 pairs of earrings, 18 broaches, 7 watches, 18 necklaces, 11 bracelets, 16 rings and numerous pendants and single earrings.

These items came into police possession as a result of a criminal investigation. Detectives worked hard to trace the items back to their victims, many of whom were elderly and ill in the early 2000's, and are now deceased. A woman who worked as a nursing assistant in Fairfax County traveled to her victim's homes where she worked as a private care provider. Following up on numerous reports, detectives arrested Myrtle Martey, 47, of Arlington and charged her with grand larceny on July 10, 2003. Police seized over 100 pieces of jewelry at that time and worked hard, over the years, to trace the items back to owners, holding open houses and working through victims' families and friends. If you have information or believe any of this property may be yours, contact the detectives at the Mason District Police Station at 703-256-8035.
